	Areas for Growth: Despite a reduction in the number of students in the 40th percentile and below in math, we continue to have 18% of students at that level in math and 21% of students in reading. Our students remained stagnant in reading.
Problem Statement	As measured by the Spring 2024 MAP data, the percentage of students in the lower achievement range (&lt; 40%) has improved slightly. The percentage of Math students was reduced by 8% and the percentage of Reading students remained the same.

Part B

Student Success
School Goal:  The goal is that by the end of Spring instruction 2025, there will be a reduction of the number of students performing in the &lt;40th percentile by 3% from Fall of 2024 to Spring 2025, as measured by MAP Growth Assessments.	Aligned to Nevada’s STIP Goal: All students will experience continued academic growth. (GOAL 3)
Improvement Strategy: This will be accomplished by continuing a Math and Reading support class specifically designed to address the needs of specific students in the lowest achieving percentile assessments. Our learning strategist will work closely with teachers and students to provide differentiated support. This initiative aims to significantly reduce the number of students falling within the low-achieving range by providing targeted interventions and personalized support to facilitate their academic growth and success.
Intended Outcomes: Reduce the percent of students scoring below the 40th percentile by 3% as measured by the Spring 2025 MAP Growth Assessment.
Action Steps: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Conduct a comprehensive data analysis: Review historical MAP Growth Assessment data to identify specific areas of weakness and patterns among students scoring below the 40th percentile in Mathematics and Reading.</li> <li>● Develop an intervention plan: Create an intervention plan that outlines specific strategies, resources, and timelines for addressing the needs of students scoring below the 40th percentile in Mathematics and Reading.</li> <li>● Implement research-based instructional practices: Incorporate research-based instructional practices that have proven effective in improving student achievement in Mathematics and Reading, such as explicit instruction, scaffolding, and differentiated learning activities.</li> <li>● Provide additional instructional time with the creation of Math and Reading Support classes built into the master schedule.</li> <li>● Foster a positive and supportive learning environment: Create a positive and inclusive classroom environment that promotes engagement, motivation, and a growth mindset among students.</li> </ul>

- Engage parents and guardians: Establish regular communication channels with parents and guardians to update them on their child's progress, provide resources for supporting learning at home, and encourage their involvement in the educational process.
- Evaluate and adjust interventions: Continually evaluate the effectiveness of the implemented interventions, using data and feedback from teachers and students, and make necessary adjustments to maximize their impact on reducing the percentage of students scoring below the 40th percentile in Mathematics and Reading.

Resources Needed:

- MAP and Common Assessments Data
- 2024 SBAC data
- Time
- PLC meetings for alignment

Challenges to Tackle:

- Student Attendance
- Ensuring consistent alignment and communication with general education classes.
- Buy-In from students and parents.

Solutions to Challenges:

- Student Attendance - attendance tracking and maintaining consistent communication on supports needed. Utilize our student success instructional facilitators to build connections with students and support improved attendance.
- Alignment - Curriculum mapping monitored by department admin supervisor
- Buy-In - Clearly communicate the benefits of the educational program to both students and parents. Highlight the positive outcomes and how it caters to the specific needs of students.
- Building Relationships - Establish a mentoring program focused on students with poor attendance in order to build relationships and improve their desire to come to school and to be successful.

Equity Supports. What, specifically, will we do to support the following student groups around this goal?

English Learners: Provide targeted English language development instruction to English learner students, focusing on improving their proficiency in academic English to support their understanding and success in Mathematics and Reading; Implement culturally responsive instructional practices that acknowledge and value the diverse backgrounds, experiences, and languages of English learner students. Incorporate culturally relevant materials, examples, and resources to enhance their engagement and understanding; and offer small-group instruction specifically tailored to the needs of English learner students to allow for more individualized support and targeted instruction to address their language and content gaps. Provide professional development for teachers on instructional strategies to support English learners.

Foster/Homeless: Implement targeted academic support programs and additional academic interventions to address skill gaps, provide extra support, and promote academic growth.

Free and Reduced Lunch: Continuously monitor and analyze data on student performance to identify trends and areas for improvement. Use this data to inform instructional decisions and target interventions effectively; use of technology (hot spots for families), and mentorship programs to improve achievement.

Migrant: Implement culturally responsive teaching; provide targeted English language development support to help migrant students improve their language proficiency. Offer specialized English as a Second Language (ESL) classes, language support services, or bilingual instructional approaches to facilitate their academic progress; and offer small-group instruction specifically tailored to the needs of English learner students to allow for more individualized support and targeted instruction to address their language and content gaps.

Racial/Ethnic Minorities: Implement culturally responsive teaching strategies; ensure equitable access to educational resources for racial and ethnic minority students, including textbooks, technology, and learning materials, as well as addressing any systemic barriers that may hinder their access to resources; and engage and involve parents and families of racial and ethnic minority students through regular communication, to foster partnerships between families and the school to create a collaborative and supportive educational environment.

Students with IEPs: Develop comprehensive and tailored IEPs for students with Individualized Education Plans that outline specific academic goals, accommodations, and modifications to support their learning in Mathematics and Reading. Regularly review and update the IEPs based on ongoing assessments and progress monitoring; provide specialized instruction to address the unique learning needs of students with IEPs; utilize assistive technology; ensure that assigned paraprofessionals work with students with IEPs in the classroom, providing effective additional assistance and individualized attention to support their academic growth.

Adult Learning Culture
School Goal: Ensure that all teachers are actively and regularly participating in the PLC + process to foster the consistent use of standards-based, rigorous, and grade-level appropriate instruction and learning tasks for Tier I Instruction. This will be accomplished by admin supervision of weekly meetings, monthly classroom walkthroughs, and review of weekly lesson plans. Instructional monitoring observation data will show that in 85% of observations, tasks and instruction will be fully aligned with the standards.	STIP Connection: Goal 2, All students have access to effective educators. Goal 3: All students experience continued academic growth.

Teachers need to remain focused on academic standards and student success criteria.</li><li>● Some teachers are unable to meet during the instructional day due to prep sells.</li><li>● The amount of time on staff development days is limited.</li></ul> Potential Solutions to address challenges:

- PLCs - Ensure that all teachers are aware of the importance of PLCs in professional development and student success. Communicate the purpose and benefits of PLCs to all staff members.
- PLC meetings - We will engage in a hybrid approach where some PLC meetings take place in person during prep periods, while others occur virtually, allowing teachers to join remotely during their prep time, and record sessions to view at other times.
- Training on effectively using PLC template and data analysis.
